

DOCTOR BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION IN HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT (DBAH)

DBAH-7701: Innovative Best Practices in Health Care Management (3 hours)

This course is a survey of best practices in health care management and focuses on those determined to be innovative through recognition from Malcolm Baldrige Awards, Magnet Certification, and the Center of Excellence Designation. Innovation is reviewed and methods and techniques that stimulate, develop, and foster innovative practices are examined.

DBAH-7702: Health Care Analytics and Financial Applications for Health Care Management (3 hours)

This course examines the application of health care analytics and models to increase health care performance by the health care facility or system with emphasis on revenue cycle management and supply chain management using mobile technologies and other advanced techniques. It uses analytics in examining financial management, patient care innovations that improve financial performance while improving quality and mitigating risk.

DBAH-7703: Governance of Health Care Systems (3 hours)

This course reviews health care system governance from the perspective of strategic policy formulation and execution, the governing body, ensuring the establishment of internal controls to ensure the integrity of the system, methods for accountability and transparent reporting to health care system stakeholders. It reviews innovative practices in health care system governance using information technology to leverage and ensure that the organization is proactive and compliant to regulations, accreditation standards as it meets the needs of the patient population it serves.