

TEACHING GIFTED AND TALENTED CHILDREN CERTIFICATE

Concordia University Chicago's Teaching Gifted and Talented Children certificate program focuses on developing an understanding of High Achieving, Gifted and Talented students. This program is designed to meet the needs of additional members of the community (beyond teachers), such as parents, community members, administrators etc. The coursework supports participants in learning how to meet the needs of all students through the lens of gifted education.

Candidates will:

- Think critically and analytically about gifted education and the role gifted programs play in the development of students identified as gifted and talented.
- Develop curriculum and utilize instructional strategies that are differentiated and meet the learning needs of all students.

General Graduate Admission Requirements

All applicants must meet the general admission requirements for Concordia University Chicago graduate programs as published in the Concordia University Chicago academic catalog (<https://catalog.cuchicago.edu/graduate/graduate-admission-student-services/>).

New students are accepted into graduate degree-seeking, approval, certificate, endorsement and/or post-graduate programs for online and on-campus study in the fall, spring, or summer semesters. Previously admitted students seeking to change programs may do so at the beginning of a semester (only) by submitting a Change-of-Program quick app (<https://capp.cuchicago.edu/graduate/change-of-program/>).

Applicants must be in good academic standing according to Concordia University Chicago's satisfactory academic progress standards at the time of requesting a program change.
