

CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING (MA)

The Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program (CMHC) at Concordia University Chicago prepares graduates with the professional knowledge, skills and practices necessary to address a wide variety of complex issues and empower diverse populations to promote optimal wellness and growth. Graduate students receive a high-quality education emphasizing Christian beliefs through integrity, competency and leadership skills. The program also recognizes, values and instills the development of techniques, conduct and self-reflection imperative to effectiveness as professionals within a diverse community and world.

The CMHC program prepares candidates as qualified entry-level counselors able to practice in a variety of contexts. These settings may include community agencies, residential settings, social service agencies, hospitals, religious organizations and private practice. Candidates from the program exhibit high standards of professionalism while integrating theory, technique and ethics into every aspect of their careers. The program requirements reflect current educational components of the Licensed Professional Counselor examination in the state of Illinois. The Clinical Mental Health Counseling degree also holds special and unique accreditation by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP).

The Clinical Mental Health Counseling program is designed to enable students to:

- Articulate and assume the professional and ethical role of a counselor.
- Discuss and demonstrate techniques of cross-cultural counseling and advocate on behalf of multicultural populations.
- Describe the role that human growth and development plays in counseling interventions and modify these interventions as appropriate.
- Explain theories of career development and implement career interventions.
- Define and utilize counseling skills and advanced counseling interventions.
- Articulate theories of group counseling and utilize leadership skills in facilitating various types of groups.
- Identify and utilize various types of counseling assessments.
- Describe and conduct methods of research and program evaluation.

General Graduate Admission Requirements
