

EDUCATION STUDIES (MA)

The College of Education offers a Masters of Arts in Education Studies degree as an alternative to the Professional Educator licensure programs. This degree does not lead to a Professional Educator License granted by the state of Illinois. This is a liberal arts degree in the discipline of education studies.

General Graduate Admission Requirements

All applicants must meet the general admission requirements for Concordia University Chicago graduate programs as published in the Concordia University Chicago academic catalog (<https://catalog.cuchicago.edu/graduate/graduate-admission-student-services/>).

New students are accepted into graduate degree-seeking, certificate, endorsement and/or post-graduate programs for online and on-campus study in the fall, spring, or summer semesters. Previously admitted students seeking to change programs may do so at the beginning of a semester (only) by submitting a Change-of-Program quick app (<https://capp.cuchicago.edu/graduate/change-of-program/>). Applicants must be in good academic standing according to Concordia University Chicago's satisfactory academic progress standards at the time of requesting a program change.

Master of Arts - Education Studies returners:

CUC alumni who completed a degree with a major in Education Studies within the past 4 years may return to Concordia University Chicago as a guest graduate student to request Illinois Professional Educator License (PEL) through CUC. CUC alumni must receive faculty advising and permission to enter the program from the Program Lead in which they seek licensure. Please note: all state requirements, tests, internships, and program requirements, in force at the time of re-entry, must be met to be entitled. Once admitted as a guest, students have 2 years to complete all program and licensure requirements. Please contact the College of Education for information about the process. Also, please see Readmission (<https://catalog.cuchicago.edu/graduate/graduate-admission-student-services/>).
