

SPECIAL EDUCATION LEADERSHIP (MA)

The Master of Arts in Special Education Leadership is designed for educators with an interest in the administrative work involved in leading special education programs. This degree is designed to provide qualified candidates with the skills and knowledge necessary to engage in the practice of leadership in the field of special education.

This program will enable candidates to:

- Apply an understanding of the financial and legal implications of special education programs in making critical decisions impacting students.
- Develop a professional development plan that promotes growth in personnel.
- Understand the role of each stakeholder and their contribution to the special education program.
- Be knowledgeable about and support the use of effective teaching strategies for students with disabilities and access needs.
- Conduct research to answer questions related to special education practices, and successfully and systemically meet the needs of exceptional learners.

Candidates for this program will have experience providing special education service (as a special education teacher/educator, a speech-language pathologist, a school social worker or school psychologist).

General Graduate Admission Requirements

All applicants must meet the general admission requirements for Concordia University Chicago graduate programs as published in the Concordia University Chicago academic catalog (<http://catalog.cuchicago.edu/graduate/graduate-admission-student-services/>).

New students are accepted into graduate degree-seeking, certificate, endorsement and/or post-graduate programs for online and on-campus study in the fall, spring, or summer semesters. Previously admitted students seeking to change programs may do so at the beginning of a semester (only) by submitting a Change-of-Program quick app (<https://capp.cuchicago.edu/graduate/change-of-program/>). Applicants must be in good academic standing according to Concordia University Chicago's satisfactory academic progress standards at the time of requesting a program change.

¹ CUC does not have an ISBE-approved Director of Special Education endorsement program. CUC offers the courses that may lead to the endorsement for those who qualify to be able to add the DOSE endorsement onto an existing General Administrative Certificate or Illinois Principal endorsement. These five courses are recommended for students pursuing the Director of Special Education (DOSE) in Illinois. CUC does not directly entitle for the Director of Special Education. It is the student's responsibility to ensure they have fulfilled all state requirements through ISBE.

Capstone Experience

The capstone for this program is fulfilled by the completion of both SPED-6896 Practicum and Seminar in Special Education Leadership 1 and SPED-6897 Practicum and Seminar in Special Education Leadership 2.

Graduation Requirements
