

PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR LICENSE: SCHOOL SERVICE PERSONNEL ENDORSEMENT (PK TO AGE 22)

The purpose of this program (formerly Type 73 Certification) is to enable students with a prior master's degree in counseling or a related area to meet licensure/endorsement requirements for the Illinois Professional Educator License (PEL) with a School Counselor endorsement (PK to age 22).

General Graduate Admission Requirements

All applicants must meet the general admission requirements for Concordia University Chicago graduate programs as published in the Concordia University Chicago academic catalog (<https://catalog.cuchicago.edu/graduate/graduate-admission-student-services/>).

New students are accepted into most graduate degree-seeking, certificate, endorsement and/or post-graduate programs for online and on-campus study for in the fall, spring, or summer semesters. Students seeking to change programs may do so by submitting a Change-of-Program quick app (<https://capp.cuchicago.edu/graduate/change-of-program/>). Applicants must be in good academic standing according to Concordia University Chicago's satisfactory academic progress standards and meet published program admission requirements at the time of requesting a program change. Program changes will be processed and recorded for the subsequent semester.

Program-Specific Admission Requirements

- A master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university of higher education in counseling or a related field.
- A transcript evaluation by Concordia University Chicago.
- Completion of 12 semester hours of psychology or sociology with grades of "C" or higher.

Capstone Experience

All students in Concordia-Chicago's school counseling program will complete a written portfolio. A portfolio is a collection of work that demonstrates growth toward, and understanding of, professional standards. During the practicum portion of the program, students will construct a comprehensive developmental program that could be implemented and will increase student's success in multiple domains. The portfolio developed should be something that students can use in their future career as a school counselor (embedded in the internship experience).

Non-degree Completion Requirements
