

REQUIREMENTS ON INTERRUPTED PROGRAMS

Undergraduate students who interrupt their degree programs for more than three years (36 months) must comply with the degree requirements in effect at the time of re-entry to CUC and under the current catalog year. Students who change their degree program must comply with degree requirements in effect at the time of the change; program changes become official at the Census Date following the petition to change their degree program.

Students returning within the three-year period and staying in the same degree program as when they left will re-enter with the same catalog year and the students original degree requirements.

The ultimate responsibility for compliance with academic requirements for graduation, selection of courses, and prerequisites and class schedules rests with the student.
