

VACATIONS

---

The University suspends all activities during recess periods of seven calendar days or more, such as Spring Break and Christmas Break. It is the policy of the school at these times to close the residence halls and dining facilities. Students will not be excused to leave early or return late in order to extend vacations.